MESSAGE NOTES MESSAGE NOTES

Message Questions

- 1. What is your favorite (clean) church joke?
- 2. The phrases from the Apostles' Creed which the message was based on were: "the holy catholic church, the communion of saints." Do your best to define the words: holy, catholic, church, communion and saints. Do you feel as if you have a better grasp on the meanings of these words after the message? Why or why not?
- 3. Why is it important to have a full understanding of the words listed above? Do you feel as if you are holy or a saint? How connected do you feel to the universal Church of Jesus Christ in the world?
- 4. Of all the ways that God could work on earth why do you think he chooses to use the church; especially if the church is imperfect?
- 5. What troubles you the most about the universal church of Jesus Christ? Why is the church so flawed? What would you change about the church?
- 6. Even though the church is flawed God has ordained the church to be his witness in and to the world today. Thus, followers of Jesus are called to be involved in the work of the church in the world. Why do some followers not get involved in the life of a local church? What does Hebrews 10:24-25 say to people who do not get involved in the life of a church?
- 7. In the early church people were being drawn to the church. Are people still drawn to the church? Why or why not? Is this our fault or God's fault? What should churches be doing better? (Acts 2:47)
- 8. Read Matthew 16:18. What hope does this offer to the church, even when it is messed up? How often do you focus on this hope?
