Message Notes

Message Questions

1. Were you ever in a situation where you did not know the rules to a game or an event? What was the situation and how did you feel about it?
2. Why did God give the Israelites the Ten Commandments? What are the blessings inherent in the Ten Commandments?
3. What role do the commandments play in your life? Should they play a more significant role; why or why not?
4. The Israelites originally pledged to follow the commandments but soon after disobeyed them; what does this tell us about the Israelites? How are we the same or different than the Israelites?
5. Instead of waiting for Moses to come down from Mt. Sinai the Israelites created a false god; an idol. What false gods do we create, turn to or worship?
6. Wealth, position and authority are common idols in our culture. What are the idols in our culture and life which are not so blatant but still idols none the less?
7. While God forgives sin; sometimes there are still consequences to our sin and idol worship; why is that? What consequences have you suffered because of something you have done?
8. Read Exodus 32 again. How is God's amazing grace on display in this passage? Is grace something that God is convinced into doing or is it his nature to be gracious? Why does the answer to that question matter?
9. What lessons did you take from Chapter Five of The Story and Exodus chapter 32? How will they affect or change your everyday life?
