Questions for Further Reflection:

- Think of a situation when you felt that the only response available to you was to do or say something you knew was wrong.
    - Now imagine that you didnt respond in that way. What would have been the negative impacts to you?
    - Could your personal suffering because of that situation have achieved any positive benefits?

- What does it feel like when you remember that Jesus is holy over all things and situations?
    - How could you bring that feeling to mind when you are approaching a tense situation?
- When talking to other about your faith, which is harder for you — personal humility or respect for the person with whom you are talking? Why do you think this is?
